Dear Mr. Nash:

This concerns your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated January 27, 2012, and your follow-up correspondence received on August 14, 2012.

Your request, FOIA 2012-02-018, was closed on June 26, 2012, because of non-payment. On May 25, 2012, you were sent a letter denying your fee waiver because it was unlikely to contribute significantly to the public's understanding of the operations or activities of the United States Government. You had 35 days from the date of that letter to appeal. To date, no appeal has been filed by you.

The terms you submitted in your request were very vague, that the search provided over 3,000 pages. This information was provided to you in our May 25th correspondence with the estimate charge for processing your request. The amount was for $613.20 for a total of 3,066 pages of duplication. You were given 30 days to pay this amount. To date, no payment has been received.

You may resubmit your request with clearer, more defined search terms pertaining to the specific topic or subject matter you are interested in.

You may submit your FOIA request online at <https://www.onlinefoia.treasury.gov/>, by FAX at 202-622-3895, or send via regular mail to:
